

GOLF IN MOROCCO

GOLF IN MOROCCO, HUNDRED YEARS OF HISTORY...

We are celebrating hundred years of friendship between golf and the Kingdom of Morocco. The first greens, which appeared in Tangier in 1914, were designed by the famous British architects Cotton & Pennink.

In 1930, the second golf course of the Kingdom was born: the Royal Golf of Mohammedia: still very British and in the purest Scottish tradition. Three years earlier in 1927, the Marrakech Pacha imagined the Royal Golf of Marrakech, which was finally established in 1933.

These three courses represented in the 30's the very essence of golfing in Morocco and it took time for new golf courses to be built. Morocco started at the beginning of the 70's a large scale golf program, inspired by the visionary late King, Hassan II. He launched the largest golf course in the Kingdom, the Dar Es Salam Golf Course: 45 holes designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior. While the prestigious Hassan II Golf Trophy was used as a powerful advertising medium internationally to put Morocco's golf to the forefront.

Golf in Morocco kept developing ever since, to become a full fledged tourism niche product with famous golf destinations. Today, 38 golf courses are spread out onto the entire Moroccan territory and amateurs will soon be able to walk the greens of about 45 golf courses throughout the country by 2020.

IT'S ABOUT A LOT MORE THAN SIMPLY GOLFING

From the North to the South, experiencing golf in Morocco depends on whether Golfers want to discover sunny beach resorts, to experience the game at the foot of the Atlas Mountains, the Mediterranean or the cities famous for their history and culture.

Four different golf experiences and four different ways to practice the sport.

Morocco is offering golf amateurs and professionals multiple landscapes.

Golfing in Morocco is part of a much wider tourism offering. As a matter of fact, a wide range of hotels is offering various activities related to wellbeing, nature and adventure, water sports...

The Moroccan open sky offers very good connections to and between the major tourist destinations. Thus making Morocco an ideal golf break destination.

Located less than three hours flight away from the major European capitals, Morocco offers nice weather and pleasant temperatures throughout the year together with golf courses designed by the most famous international architects. Players will enjoy a high diversity of golf courses, in terms of landscape as well as playing techniques. Other advantages are the highly competitive green fees as well as the low caddies' fees.

GOLF IN MOROCCO KEEPS DEVELOPING

Building on its strong foundation, the Moroccan golf offering will strongly develop by 2020, supported by the country's ambitious strategy, targeting European, American and Asian markets. The market is indeed growing 2.5 times faster than the overall tourist market. Taking into account this dramatic growth, Morocco is committed to significantly improve its golf offering in the coming years.

About half a dozen new golf courses are being built and should be ready by 2020, offering new touristic destinations. As a matter of fact, apart from Saïdia on the Mediterranean and Mazagan, Mogador Lixus and Taghazout on the Atlantic (first resorts delivered within the framework of the Azur plan), new golf courses will open at Marchica and Oued Chbika.

More golf courses in Morocco, but also significantly more hotel beds will be available throughout the country with new four and five stars hotels along the sublime Moroccan coastal areas.

GOLF BESIDES THE MEDITERRANEAN TANGIER, TETOUAN, SAÏDIA

By 2020, Morocco's coastal areas should have all turned green: seven new golf courses will be built on the Mediterranean, together with large scale tourism resorts around Larache, Tetouan, Nador and Saïdia.

This will strengthen the golf offering on the Mediterranean, turning this region into a full-fledged golf destination.

The Royal Golf Tangier was the first golf course to open in Morocco in 1914. This 18-hole course, designed by the architects Cotton et Pennink, has been modernised, while keeping its very strong British flair. The Al Houara golf course will be added to this prestigious golf course.

Behind Tetouan and the Rif mountains, the Cabo Negro Golf Beach is a spontaneous and natural 18-hole, designed in the purest British tradition by Hawtree & Sons.

On the Cabo Negro peninsula, between the Rif Mountains and the Mediterranean, an exceptional 18-hole designed by Nicklaus Design, will be built, as part of the Tamuda Bay Resort.

These two golf courses will be outstanding thanks to their incredible sea view.

Two new golfers' musts were already opened several years ago: Saïdia on the Mediterranean and Lixus on the Atlantic in 2009 with 18-hole courses respectively called the Saïdia Med Golf and the Port Lixus Golf.

By 2020, at the foot of the archaeological site of Lixus, the Phoenician city, the Port Lixus sea resort will offer to its customers, upon completion, leisure and entertainment activities specific to the region as well as two new 18-hole golf courses in an idyllic setting.

The Saïdia resort will also offer a wide range of golfing activities with the building of two new 18-hole golf courses on either side of the resort, adding on to the existing Saïdia Med Golf, to turn the resort into a golf destination with three courses.

ROYAL GOLF TANGIER

This golf course, which was built in Morocco in 1914, kept the natural and authentic flair provided by its designers, Cotton et Pennink. In the meantime, it was renovated and modernised, but nevertheless kept its original British spirit. The fascination starts already at the clubhouse from which you can watch the putting green, the practice, as well as the many pathways shadowed by pine trees, fur trees and eucalyptus. When you reach the green at number five, which is the highest point, you can enjoy the wonderful view of the roofs of « Tangier the White City ».

PORT LIXUS GOLF CLUB

First of two 18-hole courses at Port Lixus sea resort, this golf course opened in 2010 and bears the signature of Enrique Saenger, architect at Golf Projects.

Located in pleasant surroundings, the golf course is offering several viewpoints over the Atlantic as well as on to a luxurious forest. The four big lakes built at the centre of the course, provide water as well as an interesting view on several holes. The 5* Golf Hotel should be built next to the clubhouse, right at the centre of the course and commanding a nice view of the four lakes.

SAÏDIA MED GOLF

This golf course is fully integrated in the luxurious vegetation of Saïdia's site. First of the three golfs planned in this resort, this 18-hole course was designed by the Spaniard Francisco Segalés, according to an American pattern but with touches of English style. The entire infrastructure was conceived to make sure the players fully enjoy their game at all technical levels. Eventually, another 36 holes should be added to make this site a golf reference in the entire Mediterranean. Saïdia Med Golf has high-quality facilities such as a club house, a restaurant, a proshop, a fitness center and a sauna..

GOLF IN THE HEART OF MOROCCAN CULTURE

RABAT, FEZ, CASABLANCA, EL JADIDA

Golf here is an integral part of ancient cities. Golfers looking for cultural fulfilment will find in Rabat, Fez, Meknes, Casablanca or El Jadida sumptuous courses at the very heart of authentic cities offering their rich historic heritage going back to Imperial Morocco as well as modern design and Arab-Moorish architecture.

The Royal Golf Dar Es Salam, located 10 minutes away from the city centre of Rabat, which hosted 38 out of 43 editions of the prestigious Hassan II Trophy, is offering three single courses of increasing difficulty designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior. On the other side of the Bouregreg and North of the twin city of Sale, a new 18-hole will soon be built as part of the Plage des Nations Project.

Royal Golf Meknes is an original course, enabling golfers to play by day and night at the back of the Royal Palace in Meknes.

Cabell B. Robinson designed the 18-hole course in Fez, located at the foot of the Middle Atlas Mountains, at the heart of a wonderful olive grove. Closer to the city of Fez and along the Médina's fortifications, the Oued Fès golf course is the newest golf course in the region. Set amid tourist real estate, its 18 holes closely follow the curves of Oued Fès.

The Royal Golf Anfa and the Royal Golf Mohammedia golf courses give golfers an opportunity to play two courses, one in Casablanca and the other one in Mohammedia, on the Atlantic coast. Settat, an hour and a half drive away, provides a relaxing surrounding to learn how to play golf. South of Casablanca, at the 27 holes of the Royal Golf at Benslimane, in an ideal environment, you can enjoy go-karting, trekking as well as horse riding.

Casablanca has had its first 18-hole since 2014. Casablanca Golf Club & Spa is located 15 Km south of Casablanca, on the road to Azemmour, at Dar Bouazza. It is part of a large-scale, top of the range, real estate project called «Opération Dar Bouazza», including a five-star hotel, a convention hall, as well as villas.

The Casa Green Golf is an 18-hole course located right at the centre of the Casa Green Town Project. This real estate project, located right in the middle of the Bouskoura forest and hills, is a stone's throw away from Sidi Maarouf's business district.

On top of these existing courses, the area of Bouskoura has a new 18-hole golf course signed Tony Jacklin and the Palm Golf Casablanca will open in 2015. At thirty kilometers north of Casablanca, The Bahia Golf Beach opened its doors in 2014 to welcome golf players in the beautiful bay of Bouznika. will welcome Golf players very soon in the beautiful bay of Bouznika.

El Jadida, formerly called Mazagan, offers beautiful beaches lining the Portuguese fortifications. The Royal Golf El Jadida, an 18-hole course designed by Cabell B. Robinson, is adorned by four large lakes providing the fairways with spectacular lines. Not far away from there, the Mazagan Golf Club, links designed by the gifted Gary Player, is, to this date, the longest course in Morocco with its 6885 m.

ROYAL GOLF DAR ES SALAM

The Royal Golf Dar Es Salam in Rabat is already a legend for golf amateurs since it is the place where, the prestigious Hassan II Trophy took place. Inaugurated in 1971 and designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior, it is a very stately course with splendid fairways ensconced in eucalyptus, palm trees, hyacinths, narcissus, mimosas, papyrus and Roman columns. A unique course where colours and smells mix. Open all year round, the Royal Golf Dar Es Salam is both a magical and a mythical mix together.

ROYAL GOLF FEZ

At the foot of the Middle Atlas Mountains, architect Cabell B. Robinson played with the quirks of nature and the natural slopes to design a wonderful course in the midst of an olive grove. The Royal Golf Fez is open all year round with fairways winding between lakes and huge bunkers, the largest one covering 1200m<sup>2</sup>. Created in 1994, this course is a challenge very few players can resist.

GOLF DE BOUZNIKA BAY

Halfway between Rabat and Casablanca, you will find the wonderful nine holes course of Bouznika Bay, with a beautiful beach. Designed by Robert Von Hagge, this club is harmoniously combining golfing with water sports. # ROYAL GOLF BENSLIMANE

Age-old cork oaks, fur trees, eucalyptus and clean air... The Royal Golf Benslimane is an oasis for well-being. David Cohen designed the nine first holes among which five dedicated to water and Robert Van Hagge designed the remaining 18 holes. The par 3 of the eighth hole requires strength and dexterity to reach the green located on an island overgrown with papyrus. The course's emblem is a small snail... You'll find out why, if on the last hole you lose your ball in the forest.

FUTURE GOLF COURSES

RABAT

• Plage des Nations Golf Resort

With 12 golf courses spread all over Marrakech, it is indeniably the city of golf by essence. The Royal Golf Marrakech, established in 1933, was the first golf course in the city of Marrakech and the third oldest golf in Morocco. Celebrities like Churchill or Eisenhower walked its greens...

Today, Marrakech has more golf courses to offer: 11 out of 12 golf courses of at least 18 holes, surround the city at the foot of the snow-covered Atlas Mountains, where you can enjoy outdoors activities after a sunny day.

The PalmGolf Marrakech Palmeraie, designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior, offers a unique panorama, which makes it one of the most beautiful courses according to international standards.

The Amelkis Golf Resort, designed by Cabell B. Robinson, remains more technical and resembles more an American course with fairly wide fairways.

8 new 18-hole golf courses (Samanah, Al Maaden, Royal Palm, Noria, Assoufid, Montgomerie Tony Jacklin and PalmGolf Ourika) were added to the existing famous ones, as well as a nine holes course (Atlas Golf Marrakech). Located on the outskirts of the city, these golf courses guarantee Marrakesh's reputation as the largest golf offering in the Kingdom.

The Samanah Golf Club, designed by Nicklaus Design, is a highly selective course, without any useless trap. Surrounded by the Atlas Mountains, this golf is offering five different courses.

The Al Maaden Golf is surrounded by woods and alternates plains and hills. Developed and designed by Kyle Phillips, this versatile course suits all game levels.

The latest golf courses in Marrakesh are the Atlas Golf Marrakech, a true city golf, designed by Alain Prat and The Assoufid Golf Club, designed by Niall Cameron. On the road to Amez Miz, 4 new golf courses were built: The Montgomerie and Tony Jacklin Golf Clubs that enjoys great view as well as mountains as The Famous Koutoubia. Noria Golf Club Marrakech, an 18-hole course, which is part of a multi-activities holidays resort. It will be managed by the Pierre et Vacances - Center Parcs Group. The Royal Palm Golf Club, also an 18-hole course, managed by Beachcomber Group. The latest addition to this beautiful collection is the PalmGolf Marrakech Ourika which is the closest golf to Atlas Mountains.

MOGADOR

MARRAKECH

To the west of the red city, the Atlas golf offer gained, at the end of 2009, a new 18 -hole golf course south of the coastal city of Essaouira : the Mogador Golf Club. This first course at the Mogador sea resort is twinned with another 18-hole, both designed by Gary Player.

A mountain golf project with 18 holes should also be built in the Oukaïmeden valley, offering players an opportunity to play the highest golf course in North Africa.

Finally, the legendary 18-hole in Ouarzazate, will reopen soon on the at the desert's gates.

So eventually, about half a dozen new 18-hole golf courses should open by 2020 at the foot of the Atlas Mountains.

ROYAL GOLF MARRAKECH

The Royal Golf Marrakech was one of the favourite of King Hassan II. It was also played by celebrities like Winston Churchill, Lloyd George, Eisenhower... Designed in the 1920s by Arnaud Massy, and later modernised, it was built keeping in mind the pure joy of playing at the foot of the snow-covered Atlas Mountains. In this environment, you find cypresses, palm trees, eucalyptus, olive trees, orange trees, apricots trees ... The delight of the game combined with the pleasure of the senses make this course an unforgettable experience.

THE DOMAINE ROYAL PALM

With the foothills of the Atlas mountains and snowy peaks in the background, the Domaine Royal Palm Golf fits perfectly both in this tradition and in the celebration of this very well preserved nature. Familiar with the Moroccan culture and its relationship to land, American Cabell B. Robinson created this incredible garden-course by combining with subtlety all the nuances of a generous nature.

THE TONY JACKLIN MARRAKECH

The 18-hole course signed by Tony Jacklin winds through olive trees and lakes, with the Atlas Mountains in the back ground. 6 tees to vary the challenges on every hole, wide fairways but ideally placed bunkers to spice up the game, everything is made for exciting games. An exceptional site for training, the only 9 holes Par 3 of Morocco with 90 to 180m holes, where all irons can be used, with huge greens for almost unlimited pin positions. A perfect place to improve short and long iron shots. The terrace of the Club House facing the mountains will be the last stop of a successful golf day in the Tony Jacklin Marrakech.

GOLF UNDER THE MOROCCAN SUN: AGADIR

AGADIR

Located on the gates of the Sahara desert, between the mountains and the Atlantic Ocean, with 300 days of sunshine a year, pleasant temperatures and a bay lined by 10 km of sublime beaches, Agadir has everything it takes to enhance its status as the second largest golf destination in Morocco, right behind Marrakesh.

This is the region where you can enjoy three splendid golfs with fairways lined with fragrant eucalyptus, brooms and mimosas, in Royal Golf Agadir, Golf des Dunes and Golf du Soleil, as well as the new Golf de l'Océan; a 27-hole designed by the American architect Belt Collins, which opened in 2010. In the north of Agadir, located in the new Taghazout Bay Resort, Taghazout Golf, the first 18-hole golf course opened its doors for golfers in 2015. A second course will come to complete the Taghazout Bay project.

ROYAL GOLF AGADIR

In 1951, a Scotsman, enthusiastic golfer named Mister Wilson dug a single hole in which, at the time, was a wasteland. And from there, Colonel Major Kamili, no less enthusiastic but more constant, dug next eight holes that are now the Royal Golf of Agadir. Fragrant aromas of pine, eucalyptus and mimosa, rocked by a subtle ocean breeze, this golf course is open all year under a blue sky continuously.

GOLF DES DUNES

The Golf des Dunes offers three different courses: Eucalyptus, Oued and Tamaris, to triple the fun of playing. They are the work of Cabell B. Robinson's imagination, who designed in 1991 this golf course suited for all players on a hilly site with lots of water. The beginning of the course is quite easy going but as of Par 5, you experience an impressive climbing through the trees to finish with a gentle slope going down to the clubhouse, after a tricky hole 9 on the Tamaris course.

GOLF DU SOLEIL

In 1999, Muela and Courbin designed the Golf du Soleil in Agadir, including lakes and waterfalls, thus combining beauty with difficulty. The atmosphere is a unique mix between the prestige of golf and the stunning nature: tamarind trees, mimosas, eucalyptus and bougainvillea, creating light and shadow plays on the wide fairways and welcoming passionate players throughout the year.
